

Bozeman Area Community Foundation Website Privacy Policy

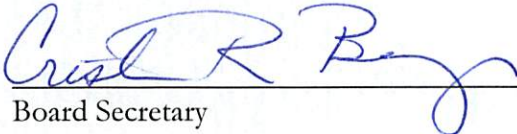

Your right to privacy is very important to the Bozeman Area Community Foundation ("BACF"). By using the BACF website and its affiliates, including but not limited to www.bozemanfoundation.org and www.givebiggy.org, you acknowledge and agree to the following privacy policy.

The purpose of the BACF websites is to communicate and educate about our work as a grant-maker, community resource and partner to further BACF's mission.

1. BACF does not share personal information provided to us, except as required by governmental entities or legal process. However, donor names may be shared in recognition of a gift unless the donor designates the gift as anonymous.
2. BACF does not sell, trade or share its donor list with any other organization. Lists of our donors, other than those published in recognition of gifts, are not available to the public.
3. When you visit BACF's websites, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our websites or to access information on our websites.
4. We may occasionally ask for visitors' feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand your interests and needs. We will also request information through online forms used to register for BACF events, donate, or to update our records. BACF does not share or make public any personal information gathered through our website.
5. Even if we offer links to third party sites through the BACF website, please note that we do not control those websites and their privacy policies may differ. If you choose to follow links to external websites, you assume the risk of doing so.

Updated: November 8, 2016

Adopted: November 8, 2016

Board Secretary